Calling Down an Angel

Plus One

You're afraid, it's all come down
To this place where dreams have fallen to the ground
Just look up, you'll make it through
'Cause there's a heavenly being that's watching over youCalling down an angel who will help you believe
Sending out a prayer, I'm down on my knees
I'm reaching up to Heaven knowing you will someday see
There's hope beyond the struggle
Just hold on, I'm calling down an angelIt's not too late, it's almost over
If you're just awake you'll feel it lifting off your shoulders
So keep believing, the sun always promises a new day
It'll stop the rain, break the chains and chase the pain awayCalling down an angel who will help you believe
Sending out a prayer, down on my knees
Reaching up to Heaven knowing you will someday see
There's hope beyond the struggle
Just hold on, I'm calling down an angelYou've been trying to be so strong
You've been waiting for so long, will your miracle ever come?
Heaven's holding every single tear you cry
And if you start to feel alone just know that I amCalling down an angel who will help you believe
Sending out a prayer, down on my knees
Reaching up to Heaven knowing you will someday see
There's hope beyond the struggle
Just hold on, I'm calling down an angel
Calling down, are you calling down an angel?
Calling down, are you calling down an angel?Just hold on, I'm calling down an angel
