Coming Back

Boyzone

Keep coming back Coming back for more Coming back Keep coming back Coming back Coming back for more When you do that thing you do You fill me with desire Maybe it's because of you I can't get no higher You may not be right for me But I don't give a damn 'cause What I feel is exctasy That's all I need I don't care about what people say I keep coming back Coming back Coming back for more I'm still up for one more round Let's play Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah And though you lie, lie I get so high, high I just don't mind, mind My friends they say, say Coming back for more You know the next day You gotta get away, away I'll be back for more Coming back I keep coming back I keep coming back Coming back for more Coming back Coming back for more Baby you're enough for me I don't need no other And all the time I'm not with you Babe, I miss the fire Some may think it's scandalous Some may say it's crazy They can't see what's going on Between you and me I keep coming back, coming back I have never felt like this before Tell me what am I to do Coming back for more I need more and more Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah I get so high, high And though you lie, lie I just don't mind, mind You gotta get away, away Coming back for more My friends they say, say You know the next day I'll be back for more I get so high, high And though you lie, lie I just don't mind, mind Coming back for more My friends they say, say You gotta get away, away You know the next day I'll be back for more I keep coming back, coming back Coming back for more I keep coming back, coming back I keep coming back, coming back I keep coming back, coming back Coming back for more I keep coming back, coming back I keep coming back, coming back Coming back for more I don't care about what people say I keep coming back Coming back Coming back for more I'm still up for one more round Let's play Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah I get so high, high And though you lie, lie I just don't mind, mind You gotta get away, away My friends they say, say Coming back for more You know the next day I'll be back for more I get so high, high And though you lie, lie I just don't mind, mind Coming back for more My friends they say, say You gotta get away, away You know the next day I'll be back for more Coming back, coming back Coming back for more
