

Rose of Ol' Pawnee

Marty Robbins

My Rose of old Pawnee, a flower of the dawn Blooming tenderly, her memory still lingers on My angel of the night, a moonlit reverie
A star of love so bright, shines on my Rose of old Pawnee
Sweet are the dreams that I hold in my heart as I go wanderin' along
Long are the hours since we drifted apart, deep in my heart is a song
My angel of the night, a moonlit reverie
A star of love so bright, shines on my Rose of old Pawnee
Sweet are the dreams that I hold in my heart as I go
wanderin' along
Long are the hours since we drifted apart, deep in my heart is a song
My angel of the night, a moonlit reverie
My star of love so bright, shines on my Rose of old Pawnee
