

Clear

Sean Fournier

Somewhere her eyes are calling and I wont be there and now I feel like falling and she's unaware,
but I'll still stare and I say...

I swear I am falling you don't see me
I might as well be clear
and I swear I'm reaching,
but you don't see me
Why am I here?

Somewhere her mind is wandering and I wonder where
'Cause I would do anything to get there I wonder if she cares,
but I'll still stare and I say...

I swear I am falling you don't see me
I might as well be clear
and I swear I'm reaching,
but you don't see me
Why am I here?

So close your eyes it just gets better.
It can't be like this forever
I'm everything you've never seen (I'm everywhere you've never been) and I just thought I'd remind you that I could scream right behind you and you will not know what I mean when I say...

I swear I am falling you don't see me
I might as well be clear
and I swear I'm reaching,
but you don't see me
Why am I here?
