The Train I'm On

The Farm Inc.

Ever since the day I was born
Something stirring in my soul
Feeling burning in my bones
When I hear that whistle blowGot my ticket in my hand
Packed up everything I own
Chu-chugging full of steam ahead
Like a locomotive I'm blown'Cause it's a long ride
Traveling down these tracks alone
But I'll be alright
Got my guitar on my back
Rocking like a rolling stone
That's just the train I'm onEverybody clap your hands
Everybody stomp your feet
Everybody get up and dance
Everybody come along with me'Cause it's a long ride
Traveling down these tracks alone
But I'll be alright
Got my guitar on my back
Rocking like a rolling stone
That's just the train I'm on'Cause it's a long ride
Traveling down these tracks alone
But I'll be alright
Got my guitar on my back
Rocking like a rolling stone
Rocking like a rolling stone
Rocking like a rolling stone
That's just the train I'm onEver since the day I was born
Something stirring in my soul
