

Michael Myers

The Meteors

Samhain

Michael Myers is back again

Bringin' all the trouble

Bringin' all the pain

Got no conscience

Got no mind

Got no reason

And he hates mankind

Halloween night, '74

Lock all the windows

Who's at the door

Hide the knives after you eat

Because Michael Myers is coming

Trick-or-Treat!

Doctors locked him up

Fifteen years ago

He don't remember

He doesn't know

Now he hates us all the time

Because Michael Myers

Has lost his mind

Michael Myers is back again

Bringin' all the trouble

Bringin' all the pain

Got no reason

Got no rhyme

Got no conscience

And he hates mankind

He's got brains deep in his head

You can't kill him

'Cause he's already dead

He's got the strength

Of darkness now

The strength of twenty anyhow

He's got girlies in his mind

Scarred fingers and a

Rageous brain
Six bullets buried in his chest
We'll never stop him
If that's our best

Michael Myers is back again
Bringin' all the trouble
Bringin' all the pain
Got no conscience
Got no rhyme
Got no reason
And he hates mankind, yeah

He's got a butcher's knife
He does his work
What he gave started
He won't shirk
You won't laugh and he won't cry
On his anniversary you could die
He's wetted his chops and now he's out
But you won't see him move about
He's out for blood
He's got a thirst
Goodbye to that happy
Thirty-first

Michael Myers is back again
Bringin' all the trouble
Bringin' all the pain
Got no conscience
Got no rhyme-aca
