Last One Standing

Cheryl

I'm lucid I'm blind
I can see with brand new eyes
And I find that my mistakes
Were shaping my destiny

Go walk that walk, yeah you know who you are
You gotta talk that talk,
Leave them tears at the door
There's no looking back,
Hey there beautiful girl
You got it, you got it...

No matter what they say,
How they make me feel
If they turn me away or down
Who cares what they believe,
Even if it hurts
Imma' be the one, one, one...
The last one standing!

The last one standing!
The last one standing!

If they told you you were wrong
To be just who you were born
To hold a lie, because it's your time
Sooner or later they're gonna fall

Go walk that walk,
Yeah you know who you are
You gotta talk that talk,
Leave them tears at the door
There's no looking back,
Hey there beautiful girl
You got it, you got it...

No matter what they say,
How they make me feel
If they turn me away or down
Who cares what they believe,

Even if it hurts
Imma' be the one, one, one...
The last one standing!

The last one standing!
The last one standing!
(Talk that talk, walk that walk,
Talk that talk)
(Talk that talk, walk that walk,
Talk that talk, walk that walk)

No matter what they say,
How they make me feel
If they turn you away or down
Who cares what they believe,
Even if it hurts
You're gon' be the one, one, one...
The last one standing!

The last one standing!
The last one standing!
