

The Sun Eater

Becoming the Archetype

With resolve I walked an untraveled path
In anguish endured unspeakable wrath
I am the one who swallowed the sun

Who boldly declared the impossible "Done!"Perfection in mortal disguise

See it burning within My eyesI am the light

I alone make the darkness brightDarkness prevailed for an hour
Until I had consumed its powerPerfection in mortal disguise

See it burnig within My eyesI am the light

I alone make the darkness bright

I am the sun

For I am the omnipotent oneI alone am the light

I alone am the light

I alone make the darkness bright

I alone am the sun

For I am the omnipotent one
