

Hold You

Exclamation Point

You're far away tonight
Haven't seen you in a while
It always feel like a climb
On this never ending hillAnd I keep saying, wait just one more day
Days slowly drift away
And I can hold to the memories
But they wont hold me in the same way
As youAnd this distance between us
Has has come and cut us clean as
A sharp blade
And this distance between us
Has made my heart as weak as
Silk that's frayedAnd I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
You're the one that
Keeps me, keeps me on the ground
I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
Can we turn this knife the blunt way around?I feel empty, my eyes are closed
It's getting dark and I'm alone
And I sleep next to my window
In case you decide to come homeAnd I keep saying, wait just one more day
Days slowly drift away
And memories I have begin to fade
'Cause you're so far awayThis distance between us
Has has come and cut us clean as
A sharp blade
And this distance between us
Has made my heart as weak as
Silk that's frayedAnd I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
You're the one that
Keeps me, keeps me on the ground
I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
Can we turn this knife the blunt way around?And I can only stay
One more day
It's like waiting on the rain
In a warm summer dayAnd this distance between us

Has has come and cut us clean as
A sharp blade
And this distance between us
Has made my heart as weak as
Silk that's frayedAnd I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
You're the one that
Keeps me, keeps me on the ground
I just wanna
Hold ya, hold ya, hold ya now
Can we turn this knife the blunt way around, now.
