

Go Upstairs

Jesse Powell

Go upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alrightBaby, I've been burning up
Longin' for you within
It seems like it's been so long
I couldn't wait to see you againYou had the longest day
For whatever reason, I, I understand
So let's kiss and let's hug
And let's touch like only we canGo upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alrightThere'll be no interruptions
We've got the whole place to ourselves
And if there's something's on your mind
Want you to tell me and no one else'Cause right now
I wanna be the only person on your mind
So let's kiss and let's hug
And let's touch like only we can, babyGo upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alrightGo upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alright'Cause right now
I wanna be the only person on your mind
So let's kiss and let's hug
And let's touch like only we canGo upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alrightGo upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alrightYeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeahGo upstairs, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeahGo upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight

Lit the candles, put down the shades
Gonna make you feel alrightGo upstairs, take off your clothes
I've got something for you tonight
