Oh Mother

Jermaine Jackson

Have I told you, you are my river?
That never stops for a rest
Have I thanked you for letting me come out of you?
And giving me all of your best
Have I thanked you for having our family?
Without them I wouldn't be here
Have I told you no matter how far I may go?
All of you... always are near
Oh mother...you've given everything to me
Oh mother...you've never asked for anything
Oh mother...I'm sorry for all those times I hurt you so
When all along it was really me
Scared of letting go
So afraid to grow
Have I told you I'll love you forever?
Have I told you I'll love you always?
Have I told you the difference you make in my life?
You make it your own special way
Oh mother...you've given everything to me
Oh mother...you've never asked for anything
Oh mother...you've given everything to me
Have I told you, you never asked for anything?
That I love you...
Have I told you today?
