Just Getting Started (Album Version)

Punchline

So move out of my way
Can't control me anymore
I'm on fire again just like before
I get like this sometimes
Ignore the warning signs
Leave it up to me to be the one who's burningEveryone is too busy for me
Seems they do it to me purposelyI'm not done yet
I'm just getting started
I'm not done yet
I'm just getting started
I'm not done yet
I'm just getting started
Started on my wayIt gets harder every minute but I think I'm fine
Just getting started but I already see the finish line
This is what I need
Fast forward cause we haven't done that one yet
Just let me know so I have time to smoke a cigarette
When it's time to leaveWith the world, in my hands
Could I change it if I want?
And who are you to answer that for me.
If by chance, or a cheater, I'd leave it up to neither
Confidence rules present tense and it could shatter all my dreamsHold still while I put these words in your mouth
Speakers speaking
Hold still while I put these words in your mouth
Speakers speakingI'm not done yet
I'm just getting started
I'm not done yet
I'm just getting started
I'm not done yet
I'm just getting...
I'm not done yet
I'm just getting...
I'm done yet
I'm just getting started on my way
I'm just letting goI will burn
It's my turn
I will burn
It's my turnThe speakers are speaking but I don't know what they're thinking
I've always been content with just hearingI'm not racing anywhere

Anywhere...
I'm not racing anyone
Anyone...
