New Day

Michael Turner

Bridges have burned
Mountains have fallen over
But I see a new day dawning
Dawning over me
Sarrows have gone
Gone in the wind that's blowing
Washed in the rain
That's falling

Over me
The rain is falling
Pouring over me
I can see it now
The fragrance and the essence of my King
Pouring over me
Giving life to me

Don't be afraid
Don't let your heart be overcome
We all have those days
It will pass and lead us to our promise land
Trials they come and go
Run to the truth you know
Let faith arise within your soul
Every night and then

Over me
The rain is falling
Pouring over me
I can see it now
The fragrance and the essence of my King
(2Ã—)
Pouring over me
Giving life to me

Over me
The rain is falling
Pouring over me
I can see it now
The fragrance and the essence of my King

(2Ã—)

Ending(Unnecessary):
It's raining down
It's raining down
God's love is all around us
Let Him heal your heart
Let Him wash your soul
Let Him make your home
