Flycatcher

Shivaree

Drop me off here love, see you tomorrow
Smell like a raindrop and look like a girl
I'll cover the bug bites, watch for your headlights
We?ll give the dream a whirl
If you?re such a kitty, where?s all my money?
You?re young and you?re pretty and you?re lazy enough
You?re one in a dozen, I hope there?s a buzzin'
Bee there inside your cuff
Go on down to China Town, have yourself a meal
Spin the cookies when you're done, they?ll tell you how I feel
?Cause everybody?s tryin? to get into heaven
But nobody?s dead so far
Stretch and you listen, sparkle and glisten
You dance in the kitchen looking for clues
A wonderful meeting but when you?re done eating
Don?t you forget your shoes
Call yourself a taxi cab, save the receipt for me and tell
The bouncer you?re my friend, he might let you in for free
?Cause everybody?s tryin? to get into heaven
But nobody?s dead so far
