Step In My Room

R. Kelly

Yo, what's up baby?
I don't see any sign on my door that says it's closed, soStep in my room, 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my room and I know you're gonna like it baby
Step in my room 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my roomFinally we're all alone so lock all the doors and unplug the phone
Hey, I wanna take you where passion lies
Girl you want my lovin'
I can see it in your eyesBaby don't hold back the feelin'
Just bring that body to me
And I'm gonna give you everything you needStep in my room, 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my room and I know you're gonna like it baby
Step in my room, 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my roomMakin' sweet love 'til morning comes, yeah
I'm still lovin' you after it's said and done, oh yeah
And doin' those things you want me to do to you baby, yeah
Like goin' down on you by the fireplaceBaby, don't hold back the feelin'
Just bring your body to me
And I'm gonna give you everything you needStep in my room, 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my room, and I know you're gonna like it baby
Step in my room 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my roomHey there lady
You drive me crazy
Sexy lady
You drive me crazyStep in my room, 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my room, and I know you're gonna like it baby
Step in my room 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my room, and I know you're gonna like it babyStep in my room, 'cause I got a little something for you, baby
In my room, and I know you're gonna like it baby
Step in my room
