Losing It

Alex Menne

Losing it- Alex Menne

Gun in one hand, the other reaching for a friend
Curious thoughts of the end
A double-edge sword,
A blessing and a curse
Helping isn't helping
Yeah, helping is worse,

And she says "I'm sorry"
That it's easier to give my body
Than surrender my thoughts
And she feels so
Lost

Gun in one hand, the other reaching for a friend
Oh well I guess this is a time to pretend
Thought it will be okay, for standing where I've been
But honestly I could use some friends

And she says "I'm sorry"
That it's easier to give my body
Than surrender (3x)
My thoughts and she feels so

She says "I'm sorry"
That it's easier to give my body
Than surrender my thoughts
And she feels so
