

Goodbye

Absence of Concern

Drown in your way
All the spiteful things you said to me
Pushed down
Bringing you back on your feet again

Some things are black and white
So go deny what you cant define
I feel so lost inside
Is this how we end
So this is goodbye
I just need one more precious moment
to make things right
Hope you find
What you're looking for
I'm sorry I wasn't enough

What good
Is changing your world
When I can't change my on Reminiscing
Silence and the strength I've gained since your gone

Some things are black and white
So go deny what you cant define
I feel so lost inside
Is this how we end
So this is goodbye
I just need one more precious moment
To make things right
Hope you find
What you're looking for
I'm sorry I wasn't enough

And as the years roll past
So will the pride in me
And as the years roll past
So will the pride in me

This is goodbye
I just need one more precious moment

To make things right
Hope you find
What you're looking for
I'm sorry I wasn't enough

And as the years roll past
So will the pride in me
And as the years roll past
So will the pride in me
