No Reason

Snuff

No reason, round again, dirty wisdom, a dirty friend
What price to answer? What price to pay?
A viscous rumor is round againSo if you're tryin' to keep it even then the effort's wasted
Tryin' to keep it even but the ground's against it
That burden will drag you on with the flowWho's answer? Who's to guess? A filthy bastard, a fuckin' mess
What rhyme and jingle tagged on behind?
A viscous rumor starts to unwindBut if you're tryin' to keep it even then the effort's wasted
Tryin' to keep it even but the ground's against it
That burden will drag you on with the flow(Round again)
Tryin' to keep it even but the hands get tired
Pushed too hard in all the wrong places
(Round again)
That burden will drag you on with the flowSo let it all come down for seventy five days
Everything might changeWho's to answer? Who's to pay? A viscous rumor heats the day
What rhyme and jingle tagged on behind?
A viscous rumor starts to unwind(Round again)
Tryin' to keep it even but the hands get tired
Tryin' to keep it even but the ground's against it
(Round again)
That burden will drag you on with the flow(Round again)
So if you're tryin' to keep it even then the effort's wasted
Pushed too hard in all the wrong places
(Round again)
That burden will drag you on with the flow
