Seein' Red

Unwritten Law

I'm seeing red
Don't think you'll have to see my face again
Don't have much time for sympathy
'Cuz it never happened to meYou feelin' blue now
I think you bit off more than you could chew
And now it's time to make a choice
And all I wanna hear is yourSo follow the, the leader down
And swallow your pride and drown
When there's no place left to go
Maybe thats when you will knowFollow the, the leader down
And swallow your pride and drown
When theres no place left to go
Maybe thats when you will knowAnd foolish lies well can't you see
I tried to compromise
'Cuz what you say ain't always true
And I can see the tears in your eyesAnd what you said now
Can't stop the words from running through my head
And what I do to get through to you
But you'd only do it againSo follow the, the leader down
And swallow your pride and drown
When there's no place left to go
Maybe that's when you will knowFollow the, the leader down
And swallow your pride and drown
When there's no place left to go
Maybe that's when you will know, oh nowWell I confess, I don't know what to make from all this mess
Don't have much time for sympathy, but it never happened to me
You feelin' down and I don't know where I'll be when you come around
And now it's time to make a choice and all I wanna hear is your voice

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/