

Legs & Arms

Breton

What skin?
You felt the most unsettled in
What breaks this in?
I'll set you down
I'll set you well
Less ground than you could cover in an hourI've found a way of walking without sound
What scrapes the skin?
I'll weigh you up
I'll weigh you inI've found a way of walking without sound
You felt the most unsettled in
Whoever you areWhoever you are
Whoever you are
You felt the most unsettled in
What breaks this in?
Whoever you are
Whoever you are
Whoever you are
Whoever you are
Whoever you are
