

My Addiction

The Family Ruin

It's not air that I breathe any longer
It's your scent that is feeding my hunger
It's the touch of your skin, you feel just like a sin
That keeps pulling me under I don't know if there's a medicine to cure me now
I don't know if there's a sedative to hold me down
All I know is since we met; I can't get you out of my head So tell me when, will I see you again? I know you know, this is more than any ordinary night
Cause I'm addicted to you, more than you could know
Even if I try I know I'll never let go
Just like a drug, you're running through my blood
I try to give you up but it feels too good
I know that's my conviction
I can't stop cause you're my addiction You know I want it, gotta have it cause it feels so right
The way you touch the way you fuck
It feels like dynamite
I've got this feeling in the back of my mind
You're all that I need for the rest of my life It's the way that you look at me with those eyes
I'm not penitent for anything I fantasize All I know is since we met I can't get you out of my head So tell me when, will I see you again? I know you know, this is more than any ordinary night
Cause I'm addicted to you, more than you could know
Even if I try I know I'll never let go
Just like a drug, you're running through my blood
I try to give you up but it feels too good
I know that's my conviction
I can't stop cause you're my addiction It's the way that you look at me with those eyes
You are my addiction
Just like a drug, I can't get enough
You are my addiction You are my addiction So tell me when, will I see you again? I know you know, this is more than any ordinary night
Cause I'm addicted to you, more than you could know
Even if I try I know I'll never let go
Just like a drug, you're running through my blood
I try to give you up but it feels too good
I know that's my conviction
I can't stop cause you're my addiction
