Wherever She Goes

Trapt

Hold me under the water
Your hands around my neck
Are you taking it out on me
?Cause we have nothing left?
We both went through it
No use for regrets
Too young and stupid
Never, we can't forget
But I will see you again
I will, I will find you
I'll taste you again
I do, I do love you
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes I'll be
Promising forever
Starts with just a hope
Staying together
Well, that's a different road
Do you believe me
When I say I'm fine?
What are you feeling
So deep inside?
Well, I will see you again
I will, I will find you
I'll taste you again
I do, I do love you
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Who should we blame for our broken hearts?
I won?t let it tear us apart
You pointed your fingers, you made your demands
And now you have left it all in my head
I'll follow you, I'll follow you
And I will give you back that feeling
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be

Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be
Wherever she goes, ever she goes I'll be (Wherever you go, I?ll be)
Wherever she goes, ever she goes
(Hoping on love to help me)
Wherever she goes, ever she goes
(Tell me how much you love me)
Wherever she goes, ever she goes
Wherever she goes I'll be
