

What Are You Waiting for?

Dikta

this is it Ive had enough told my friends Im done with it broken smiles and empty words not this time here we go been here before come here often, do you dear? no one else can help you here you're alone what are you waiting for? one more time just one more time revolution is not yet scream it out shout out and see if I care get away, get far away can't you see Im done with this?
vacant stares and no more words this is now it is time to shed my skin it is time to cut it thin it is time to kill my twin this is nothing like before
