

Social Development Dance

Pete Yorn

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

i remember the first time i saw you you were drifting down Crouse Ave you looked like a hot-country-Vermont though my eyes were never that good your head seemed to hold itself up high on that long thin neck of yours you glanced back although we never had passed you lit a cigarette and smiled and when we kissed it was electric a chemist made us for each other but i was far from being your only one my roommate said he'd seen you before...theres something missing in us we try to make it whole though it never feels like it, i know you have it all theres something missing in us we long to make it whole though it never feels like it i know you have it all i know you have it all we went to the social development dance the whiskey went down easily you kissed the best you had enormous breasts and we wandered out really early we were neighbors for a very short time it all worked out quite wrong when your boyfriend called you pressed against the wall ...:"oh i really gotta go now"....theres something missing in us

i know you have it allwed move away when the winters were gone i think i saw you once in the city i heard you were staying up North with a friend and that your hair was falling out i tried to find out what had happened to you i Googled you in quotes got no results i never learned how you had died but i knew how you had livedtheres something missing in us we tried to make it whole though it never felt like it i know you had it all
we longed to make it whole
i know you had it all friend my friend, you left us in the end.
