Hey Joe

Tahiti 80

There are so many things to say about Joe
First why did we let him go
A star of second-hand record markets
Sweet eyes with a bow tie and it's doneHey Joe, how can we know
What you've been doing all these years?
It's not that I'm asking you for money
I just want you by my sideHis brother Marc and his cousin Bob
They were both chased by huge mobs
While Joe, he could only sing about the things
Crazy women didn't bringHey Joe, how can we know
What you've been doing all these years?
It's not that I'm asking you for money
I just want you by my sideWrite a song, sing along
That's all we can do
(Sing a song)
That's all we can do
(To hear from you)
That's all we can doHey Joe, how can we know
What you've been doing all these years?
It's not that I'm asking you for money
I just want you by my side
Hey Joe, hey Joe Dolan
