My Own Life

Long Beach Dub All Stars

World is spinning round, sun is shining bright
Pierces through my curtains and the sunlight burns my eyes
Telephone is ringing but I've got nothing to say
I wish that they would all just go away
The devil's knocking down my front door killing me with strife
All I ever wanted was someone to let me live my own life

All I ever wanted was someone to let me live my own life
All I ever wanted was to give, all I ever wanted was to live
All I ever wanted was someone to let me live my own life
All I ever wanted was to give, all I ever wanted was to live

Stars are falling down from the sky tonight
Sun is fully eclipsed and now I see the light
Everyone around me crashing down from all sides
And they say some things are never gonna change my life
If you ask me for the answers you'll get one reply
All I ever wanted was someone to let me live my own life

Want to sip on me royal tea
Let me live, oh Lord help me live

Some will win and some will lose
You never can decide what's the path you'll choose
I guess its in the way things will always be Everybody wanna drink up me royal tea
The devil's knocking down my front door killing me with strife
All I ever wanted was someone to let me live my own life

Someone will win and some will fucking lose
You can't decide on the path you'll choose
This is how it's always gotta be
Take all my fucking royal tea, this is my life

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by GAUGH IV, FLOYD I. / WILSON, ERIC JOHN / ARCHULETA, RUDY / MANESS, JACK / SMITH, / WU, TIM
Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/