Coming Home

Iron Savior

Lost in the dark milleniums ago
Where is the place where's the place called homeOn fire they rode to flee from the fall
Their future was doomed they've foreseen it allMythical world of the ancient empire secret and hidden but some day we shall returnAncient calls from anywhere in time we have to follow the sign
Distant voices, sources unknown
Where to they lead us
Where will we go
On the scent for the lost Coming homeChasing a shadow in stardust and haze Where will we find traces of our raceThe engines are roaring we're leaving ground once more is it for real, will we fail like so often beforeAncient calls from somewhere in time
we have to follow the sign
Distant voices, sources unknown
Where to they lead us
Where will we go
On the scent for the lost Coming homeMythical world of the ancient empire is it for real, will we fail like so often beforeAncient calls from somewhereStar of the old guide us, give us hope
