

You Had to Be There

Diamond District

(Verse: Oddisee)

Beats out the DC, peace out the NY

Preach out the worldwide, sound from the bottom of the rap bot

D3CPPO left for colored people

You need to know, on my vial never lie-oh, I swear it on the Bible

But if you got a Quâ€™ran handy, then â€˜ya salamâ€™ (â€˜how fantasticâ€™)

I walk upon this earth strong, you heard wrong if otherwise

The man listen to em other guys, yo

Lemme kick another round, lemme make another mind think besides mine

I feel one other pat at one time

Just good to be reminded I ainâ€™t numb

And Iâ€™m a part of the plan, XO is part of the plan

yU is part of the plan, Diamond District is a part of the plan, so understand that

DC is the county and DC is the place

Take off the shoes cuz you canâ€™t run the race

(Hook)

Diamond District, we had it poppinâ€™

(You had to be there)

And all the words to our songs, you was rockinâ€™

(You had to be there)

Folks lyinâ€™ outside just to see us

(You had to be there)

What is cominâ€™ up next ?

(You had to be there)

Every time, let em know where we from

Oh, you ainâ€™t even come?! Well, I guess uh

(You had to be there)

That foâ€™ sure countinâ€™ dolla bills fold

(You had to be there)

You ainâ€™t know by now, now you know

(You had to be there)

(Verse 2: XO)

The worldâ€™s in the palm of your hands

Pain is a part of the plan

Thought about it walkinâ€™ down 14th street

Live at concert, one of the cheap seats

If you wonâ€™t tell yo, I wonâ€™t tell, yo

2 XA yo, new my way home
More soldiers, you know they had to kill some Remember us? The ones ya got the real from?
The endless truth be told
Let me know what ya good to go
Took the capital but wouldn't let the masses to
Had a few different manual for attitude
Man that do, this what makes us compatible
If I was there, eye ? got the Grammys too
Shame on the liquor for tryna run game on the liquor
Watch out the change on a nigga

(Hook)

(Verse 3: yU)
Do I hold my own weight?
Does a fat boy love chocolate cake?
The sprinklers on top and a styrofoam blade
I fell for debate becuz I could not wait to chase
Whateverâ€™s better than the bottom of it
Seal the deal for real cuz I do not pretense
Slim the gym, you win one, come get some
Theyâ€™ll prolly move yo body till yo hips numb
They say you win some, you lose some, this wisdom
I get from the jet ones(?) who been done
That since young
Sittinâ€™ in the chance to this chair
Chill, for smooth (?) fit as true
Thing decline, now Iâ€™m livinâ€™ proof
Lies are new so the new truth I quip

This foâ€™ real, ainâ€™t time for the stupid shit
Speakinâ€™ of which, my watch set is about that
This bitch connected the feature to a wild rap

(Hook)

Diamond District, we had it poppinâ€™
(You had to be there)
And all the words to our songs, you was rockinâ€™
(You had to be there)
Folks lyinâ€™ outside just to see us
(You had to be there)
What is cominâ€™ up next ?
(You had to be there)
