Give Me Back the Nights

DJ Shadow

Give me back the nights
Give me back the agony of my solitude.
The nights I spend alone, the millions endless, solitary nights, of my life.
Give me back all the people i desired, and never came.
Give me back your love, a love which was never really given.
Give me back the nights.Give me back the agony of the years of lonely living,
Give me back the thousand rejections of my love,
Give me back the love wich i deserved,
Give me back the time, wasted time of energy and beauty of my youth, wasted in the wait and still out in irritation when noting was coming and waiting, the waitingGive me back the nights and we should have lain toghether, building a of great temple of our love.
Give me back the nights, the nights, the nights, the nights, the nights, the nights,The lone, cruel, endless, nights.
