I Know It Hurts

Alter Bridge

And you say this ain't living
You say you can't go on
You only take as you've given
And now your hope is all but gone, yeah
Though you lost your way
Now is not forever
But I know your pain
We all fall sometimes, you're not the first
But I know it hurts, yeah, I know it hurts
In the end you'll find what you deserve
Still I know it hurts, yeah, I know it hurts, oh, oh
There are tides slowly rising
The storm is on its way, yeah
But you can't keep on fighting
So battered, worn and so afraid
Though it's sad and wrong
I hope you will remember, oh
That you must carry on
We all fall sometimes, you're not the first
But I know it hurts, yeah, I know it hurts
In the end you'll find what you deserve
Still I know it hurts, yeah, I know it hurts
There's still tomorrow, hold on, hold on
There's still tomorrow, just wait, just wait
There's still tomorrow, hold on, hold on
We all fall sometimes, you're not the first
But I know it hurts, yeah, I know it hurts
In the end you'll find what you deserve
Still I know it hurts, yeah, I know it hurts
