

Hurt This Way

Lifehouse

I look for my keys somewhere buried in the grass
She's riding her tail lights over the broken glass
On a highway from nowhere
Hoping on going back Where did she come from Where do I go
Each time that I fall, you know it's just another show
Where the credits keep on rolling
And I'm the last to know
And it's a long cold road tonight
And I'm wondering without a fight So tell me why you want to hurt this way
Why you want to hurt this way
Why you want to hurt this way
Shag it off don't be ashamed
Nothing ever stay's the same
Why you want to hurt this way Open the screen door
The transits to plays an old Springsteen song
From my fathers glory days
Moms in the kitchen trying to hide a swollen face
The old mans tied one on tight
He looks the other way
I hold in every word
There's just too much to say
I gotta rise above this madness
Before I go insane So tell me why you want to hurt this way
Why you want to hurt this way
Why you want to hurt this way
Shag it off don't be ashamed
Nothing ever stay's the same
Why you want to hurt this way So tell me why you want to hurt this way
Why you want to hurt this way
Why you want to hurt this way
Yeah
Shag it off don't be ashamed
Nothing ever stay's the same
Why you want to hurt this way
