

Love Is Illness

Atreyu

My soul it screams for you can you not here it my arms reach out for you why cant you take them my heart burns only for you can you extinguish it I love only to be loved by you why cant you love me too I long only to be held and care for why cant it be am I to die alone and bitter what the hell is wrong with me my face is blackened and my eyes are sewn shut with fear and sorrow I no longer wish to love anything just cut the heart right out of me sometimes I choke on all the false love that infects me sometimes everything is not enough to cure the sickness inside of me I did it all cried black tears for you why cant you see like a vampire biting my heart suck the love right out of me don't even care as my blood stains the floor cannot be cleaned you cut me out and tore me through six feet under's the place for me I feel it all as it sickens me it feels like I'm dying inside because of the love I gave that can't be returned my longing for instability is a personality flaw I trust you with respect and you tear me down
