

My Unanswered Whys

Small Brown Bike

What went wrong? Did you even try? You made me think that this would work all along. I should of known better. You made me try. You made me feel like I was everything. One of us has to get hurt.(Don't fall for this boy) And the other asks, "Was it worth it this time?" She said, "Pick one." So I took both.(I had the look in my eyes) The Good and the Ugly. I couldn't wait to see you. I couldn't wait to hear you. You can keep those three words wrapped up for yourself. What went wrong? What did you see? You looked right through me...You looked right through me. Everything meant everything to you (I have to write you) Everyone meant everything to you(I hope you get the pieces of me) I have to write you. I hope you get the pieces of me. Pen and Paper, Is all I have. Begging you please. I'm sending you my Hands and Knees. Why must I try? Why do I try?
