Hello Brooklyn

Joell Ortiz

This city, so pretty under moonlit skies
We'll be hangin' like a cigarette
So stunning, start runnin'
Tonight's like a knife
Would you cut me with your kiss?
I bleed, red lips, you're unbelievable
Can't miss this chance to take you out
Here's my invitation
Hello Brooklyn, hey L.A.
Take the streets all night 'cause we sleep all day
When the world comes crashing down
Who's ready to party?
Hello Brooklyn, hey L.A.
Coast to coast, I'll take you down in flames
Let the good times roll, we can let go
Everybody knows there's a party at the end of the world
This city was your city
Heels on the sidewalk, beggin' for a back beat
Don't worry, I fight dirty
Tonight's like a right hook, knock you off your feet
I'll be yours truly unbelievable
Can't miss this chance to take you out
Here's your invitation
Hello Brooklyn, hey L.A.
Take the streets all night 'cause we sleep all day
When the world comes crashing down
Who's ready to party?
Hello Brooklyn, hey L.A.
Coast to coast, I'll take you down in flames
Let the good times roll, we can let go
Everybody knows there's a party at the end of the world
Kiss it all goodbye
Tonight should've never been more alive
You're so alive
You're not afraid to die
And I can see it in your eyes, your eyes
Hello Brooklyn, hey L.A.
Take the streets all night 'cause we sleep all day
When the world comes crashing down

Who's ready to party?
Hello Brooklyn, hey L.A.
Coast to coast, I'll take you down in flames
Let the good times roll, we can let go
Everybody knows there's a party at the end of the world
London, Tokyo, Boston, Frisco
DC, Chicago, Baltimore, Toronto
(There's a party at the end of the world)
Memphis, Rio, Dublin, Mexico
Paris, here we go
Everybody knows there's a party at the end of the world
