The Moment

Under The Flood

I woke just to watch you sleep
The way you breathe,
The effect you had on me,
But maybe I foolishly waited patiently
For the things that I'll never see
I guess what you wanted
Was a product of a temporary haze
Or maybe you wanted to get caught up
In the thought of me.
The moment that I fell for you
If only I'd have known what you'd do
And every little thing I thought I knew
It keeps on coming back to you
The moment that I found the truth
Of every little thing that you do to me
What you do to me
Watching our worlds collide
Like black and white
Was more than I could take
And all of the countless times
You crossed the line
I looked the other way,
Was it a game for you
A game for two

Well you played me like a fool
And I gave it all to you
And you threw it all away
You threw it all away
[Chorus]You come around with your head in the clouds
Well come out
You run around with a face full of doubt
Your cover's blown and you're still all alone
Well I'm gone, well I'm gone, well I'm gone
The moment that I fell for you
If only I'd have known what you'd do
And I thought that I knew
Everything about you
The moment that I fell for you

The moment that I found the truth.
[Chorus](The moment)
You come around with your head in the clouds
Well come out, well come out, well come out.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/