New Love

Dua Lipa

Now it's getting quiet here
Now it's getting blue
And this baby ain't no fair
Taking up my youth
You've been telling me some lies
I've been thinking it's the truth
But I see it in your eyes
The things that you doI don't wanna waste more time all alone
Want somewhere to go
Something to call my own
And I ain't satisfied
When you go
Outside of the road, washed up on the shoreAnd I've been through mountains and seas
Tryina get you to come back to me
And I've been far and I've been so deep
Now I find it harder, and harder to breathe
And I need some new love, new love, new loveEven though I run away
I still come back
Know there's nothing more to say
It's all been said
I've been trying to explain
The things we hide
To all of my friends who say
That I've gone madI don't wanna waste more time all alone
Want somewhere to go
Something to call my own
And I ain't satisfied
When you go
Outside of the road, washed up on the shoreAnd I've been through mountains and seas
Tryina get you to come back to me
And I've been far and I've been so deep
Now I find it harder, and harder to breathe
And I need some new love, new love, new loveEasy come, easy go, why?
Are we living on, living on
If we're not, giving on, giving on
Can't we just let it go?
'Cause I wait for a miracle
Why wait for a miracle, yeah!And I've been through mountains and seas
Tryina get you to come back to me

And I've been far and I've been so deep
Now I find it harder, and harder to breathe
And I need some new love, new love, new love
