

Dear Love

Tynisha Keli

You said you'd conquer all, you would catch me if I fall
But you were never there at all, dear love
Said you were all I need and you were like the air I breathe
So why you suffocating me, dear love? And now I wonder if you even know my name
Lately you've been acting strange, dear love
And now I feel so abandoned, shattered and broken
I'm lookin' for answers and nobody's showin'
I thought that you changed instead you got me again, dear love I gave you all I had but you're asking for more than that
And you ain't givin' nothing back, dear love
Is this all in vain or some kind of game?
I'm pouring my heart out, can't you see the stains?
Do even care that I go through such pain for love? And now I wonder if you even know my name
Lately you've been acting strange, dear love
And now I feel so abandoned, shattered and broken
I'm lookin' for answers and nobody's showin'
I thought that you changed instead you got me again, dear love And now I wonder if you even know my name
Lately you've been acting strange, dear love
And now I feel so abandoned, shattered and broken
I'm lookin' for answers and nobody's showin'
I thought that you changed instead you got me again, dear love And now I feel so abandoned, shattered and broken
I'm lookin' for answers and nobody's showin'
I thought that you changed instead you got me again, dear love

Songwriters

Tyrrell Bing; Nehemiah Nesmith; Dwayne Nesmith; Kenyarte Robinson
Published by
NU JERUZ MUSIC; WARNER-TAMERLANE PUBLISHING CORP.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>