

All Cried Out

Gareth Gates

Tear drops in my eyes
Came every day with the sunrise
It's been that way as long as you've been gone
I thought the day would start
Same as the others falling apart
I thought I barely would be hanging on Something has changed, feel so strange
Swimming through a notion of games
Then suddenly is the sun[Chorus]
Maybe I had enough of you,
Maybe I been tired to dream of you
Maybe I gotta know your goodbye bye now
Baby I couldn't live without you
Now when I think about you
My eyes are dried somehow
Baby I'm all cried out
All cried out I don't know what it is
Why I'm not longer missing your kiss
It feels mysterious and so damn good
Something is changed, feel so strange
Swimming true a notion of games
Then suddenly is the sun[Chorus] My heart has finally walked away
It's gone from the scene of the crime
It's finally found the perfect place
Leaving it far behind
Baby maybe I[Chorus: x3]
