

Strange World

Fallulah

Woke up depressed
Another night of unrest
Takes hold of my head
It's seeping through my night dress
I wanna close my eyes
Feel like a child
I wanna live in peace
I want you with me Strange, strange world
We're trying to keep up with every turn
Gravity
It's holding us down from floating free
Strange, strange world
We're trying to keep up but what do we learn
Hold me close
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all I know
My inner beast
Is coming out to find me
Takes hold of my heart
Serenades me softly
I wanna get away
Break off the chain
I wanna leave my ghost
Cause I want you the most Strange, strange world
We're trying to keep up with every turn
Gravity
It's holding us down from floating free
Strange, strange world
We're trying to keep up but what do we learn
Hold me close
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all I know
Strange, strange world
Taint my heart
Strange, strange world
From the start

Strange, strange world
I've been living life behind doors
Show me what's it like to be yours
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all that I know Strange, strange world
We're trying to keep up with every turn
Gravity
It's holding us down from floating free
Hold me close
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all that I know
Loving you is all I know
