

Kisses Stain

Eric Martin

It could have been the way that she would flirt with me in private Whispered her dirty little secrets
Till my eyes jumped out their sockets
How she pressed against me in her sundress
Crashed and burned my innocent child
With that smoke ring smile
Maybe she pretended when she told me
I was her greatest Valentino
Filled my head with junk from poets
I can still taste every moment she's here
In the back of old tears
All and all a love comes easy
And after all it leaves so hard
Once upon a time ago she kissed me
Forever on my face
Can't be washed away
Cause kisses stain
Maybe I could fool myself in thinking there was more than one believer
I was a fly in tender trappings
It was a nice dream while it tasted
How she left behind her souvenirs
And quietly disappeared into the haze
I keep her in the pain of my brain
All and all a love comes easy
And after all it leaves so hard
Once upon a time ago she kissed me
Forever on my face
Can't be washed away
Cause kisses stain
