

Room in Here (feat. The Game)

Anderson .Paak

She had a bright smile, big white teeth
I mean whiter than the white tea, remind me of wifey
Met her at the studio, sorta like a hi bye
She told me she had game so we connected like the wifi
She had asian swag about her, so I called her Mai tai Started following her, she was the only thing on my timeline
And there was this one picture, her in a swim suit
That made a nigga want to beat it up, and I intend to
