

Keep Talking

Cyrus

Don't know what to say when you're acting this way you just bring me down, down I'm trying to change but you find another way just to bring me down, down And I know you're never quitting even if it's for the sake of us I've had enough Oh, baby I know better than to keep on fighting but you keep talking, keep talking Every time I try to change the station you just keep talking... keep
I don't wanna stay in this place
It's written all over my face
I can't take it no more
you just keep talking
'Cause I'm walking away Drivin' me insane tryna work out in my brain and you bring me down, down when things don't go your way i guess you got me to blame for all your life's turnout no i said i'll never leave you but you've given me no other choice i've had enough oh, baby I know better than to keep on fighting
but you keep talking, keep talking
Every time I try to change the station
you just keep talking... keep
I don't wanna stay in this place
It's written all over my face
I can't take it no more
you just keep talking
'Cause I'm walking away baby keep on talking with every step i'm driving you out gotta keep on moving 'cause there's no point in staying around oh. Don't know what to say when you're acting this way
you just bring me down, down I know better than to keep on fighting
but you keep talking, keep talking
you just keep talking... keep
I don't wanna stay in this place
It's written all over my face

you just keep talking
'Cause I'm walking away
I know better than to keep on fighting
but you keep talking, keep talking
you just keep talking... keep
I don't wanna stay in this place
It's written all over my face
I can't take it no more
you just keep talking
'Cause I'm walking away
