

At My Door

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Cold wind wakes me from my sleep
I've waited for this
Something for which I relied Darkness takes me to my dreams
I've waited for this
Something from which I can't hide I'll never see it til it's at my door
Til it's at my door, it will be ignored
I'll never see it til it's at my door
Til it's at my door, it will be ignored Nothing seems to ease
My conscience seems to be
Unconscious, all I have realized Sorrow seems to eat my being
Only leaves me
Seeing all I have is gone I'll never see it til it's at my door
Til it's at my door, it will be ignored
I'll never see it til it's at my door
Til it's at my door, it will be ignored
