Cinnababy

Delilah

Cinnababy why are you so lonely?
He holds you tight but never do you cry.
And if you hold my heart, I?ll be heartbroken
Because your hands are tied.
Rent a baby see how much it loves you
Leave your dream but first you must have won
Buy a house cause then you?ll be safe from me
Cause you?ll be locked inside.
Cinnababy why are you so lonely?
You shine out
Cinnababy you?re my one and only
I?ll never let you go.
Cinnababy look how tall you?ve grown now
So strong that I can barely help you up

You can drive but let me steer you home now
You just enjoy the ride, enjoy the ride, enjoy the ride.
Flashing lights make it hard to see through
All the smiles and laughs
Stormy clouds may come but I?ll still shield you
From the stowing rain, stowing rain, stowing rain.
Cinnababy why are you so lonely?
You shine out
Cinnababy you?re my one and only
I?ll never let you go.
Go-o-o-o-o x2
Cinnababy why you still so,
Cinnababy why you still so,
Cinnababy why you still so lonely?
You shine out
