

Perfection Reflection

White Apple Tree

You've got the future memorized
You're lookin' through crystal laced with your eyes
The bomb is dropped, the truth unlocked
But no answers found in this fucking black box

You're lookin' for heaven maybe
But only stars are in your eyes
Perfection reflection
Your truth is what you fantasize

You're thinkin' so hard that you're all in a sweat
With life as a chaser your left here in debt
To live in the moment of love in dark red
Drop down to earth

You're lookin' for heaven baby
But only stars are in your eyes
Perfection reflection baby
Your truth is what you fantasize
