

The Walls

Dave Moore

There were chains around my feet
There were shackles binding me
Then the walls came crashing down
There were sins subduing me
They were cast into the deep
When the walls came crashing down
There were strangers all around
They're my brothers and sisters now
That the walls came crashing down
All the tears that fill the streets
Wash away in the crystal sea
When the walls come crashing down

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>