

The Whipping Post

Vengeance Rising

Praetorium

A garrison

Barrabas

Dreams of horror

Tumult

Crucifix

Mockery

It will end

Accusations

Guess who's the father of it Some people think, he was weak, so he died

He was bad, no one touched him, unless he let them

Like dominos, they all fell, and they will fall

He accomplished what he set out to, the warrior prince, defeating all Tied to the whipping post, for what he had not done

Substitutionary sacrifice, we're covered in the blood

Check it out, Noahs ark was covered with the Pitch

That kept it from sinking, sin is sinking people every day Propitiation, expiatory blood atones

For that which you commit and what you do not know You may think "I'm driving 55 so what's the big deal dude"

But you are in the 35, guilty, me and you All have sinned, and that's just the way it is

But we are saved through conversion, based upon what he did Conversion is the point where your total trust is in Christ

For salvation, but it imparts a new life

You do not get cleaned up to take a bath

Like receiving Christ, You'd better do it while you can Regeneration, that which happens to the true

Born Again Believers, Inner conflict Imputation, given the righteousness of Christ

Hamertia, the price is paid Redemption, that encompasses the whole

Be diligent to understand, then speak it and be bold Pilates wife, knew the gig and she freaked out man

Bar-Abbas understood substitution and

Simon Peter, a disciple in denial and

Roman soldiers long since dead, times got the upper hand Blasphemy

Hypocrites

A King and Robbers

Golgotha

Eli, Eli

Lama Sabachthani?

A quote of David, in praise to God

Veil torn

Graves open

This is the Son of God
