Don't Hurt Me This Way

Lukas Graham

Sunday morning trying to clear my head.
I dont remember what i did i cant remember shit but i feel good.
You know you've got to leave but know you want me
you really want me
now your on your knees, beggin' please, ooh Acting kind of strange telling me how much you want me but this could never change. I used to want you now its not the same.
What you give is what you get.
I said no, but your still beggin'

Baby dont hurt me
dont hurt me this way
i thought we agreed
that we both felt the same.
Baby dont hurt me, its not okay, you said.

I know i told you
Girl there's no excuse
We both helped to draw the line
You had the change to choose Why'r you messing
Messing with my head
Making me feel guilty
When you know im i the sand
Baby please ooh
You were just a fling
I never would have started
If i knew how it would end
All im asking
Is take this pain away
What you give is what you get

Baby dont hurt me

dont hurt me this way
i thought we agreed
that we both felt the same.
Baby dont hurt me, its not okay, you said.

You said i ment nothing to you
That it was all right with you Dont ask me what i can do
So why are you being unfare
So why are you being so crewd
So why you being this mean
What have i ever done to you
But your still beggin'

Baby dont hurt me
Dont hurt me this way
Im sorry i can't take your pain away
So baby dont hurt me
Its not okay
You said

So baby dont hurt me
Dont hurt me this way
I thought we agreed
Baby dont hurt me
Its not okay, you said
