

My Isolation

Lovex

Once again
they tell me that I'm insensible
It must be true,
It's always the same accusation You don't feel well and you seek a reason,
I guess it's me,
I guess it's my lack of compassion And I fake to sympathize
With the struggles you endure every single day These desperate cries
Surround my isolation
I wanna be alone
Am I whole? Am I hollow? Before my eyes the most beautiful girl cries Still I run to avoid any complications And I fake to sympathize
With the struggles you endure every single day These desperate cries
Surround my isolation
I wanna be alone
Am I whole? Am I hollow? When heaven descends to the Palms of my hands
I wanna be alone
Am I whole? Am I hollow? These desperate cries
Surround my isolation
I wanna be alone
I wanna be
When heaven descends to the Palms of my hands
I wanna be alone
I wanna be
