She's Fine (Eden's Song)

Dave Fenley

She's like a cool breeze blowing on a summer day
She's like a moonlit dance in a farmer's field while cicadas serenade
She's like the rain when the rain needs fallin
She's like the sun when it needs to shine, She's fine

She's like peace and quiet at the end of the week
She's like the best mix tape that was ever made, just playin on repeat
She's like Church on a Sunday morn,
Like a steak dinner and a bottle of wine, She's fine [yes she is]

Oh she's fine sitting on that front porch swing just listening to me sing,
She's a lover fighter she's my best friend, I guess you'd say that she's everything the greatest gift that I've been given but I cant believe she's mine, she's fine [ha ha]

[Ohhhhhhhhhhhh]

She's like a chello and a violin playin a tune
She's like family and friends watching her walk in on a day in early June
A gold ring and the good lord's blessing
My forever valentine, she's fine

Oh she's fine sitting on that front porch swing just listening to me sing,
She's a lover fighter she's my best friend, oh I guess you'd say that she's everything the greatest gift that I've been given but I cant believe she's mine, oh she's sweet and she's honest she's all I ever wanted I must be the luckiest man alive, she's fine

She's like a cool breeze blowing on a summer day.

Lyrics Submitted by C.R

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/